

Calendar Effects Model

- A shorter-term model whose goal is to invest only during those short periods of time during the calendar year that have shown historically to have a high probability of profit.
- Makes approximately 11 short duration trades per year.
- Market exposure is limited to approximately 75 market days per year.
- 100% allocated to Cash on non-Calendar Effects days.
- Best for accounts with no trading restrictions.